

State of You

What do you desire in your current life?

How do your desires interact with your core values?

What's the first step you can take on your personal journey?

When you hit a potential obstacle along the way, what's going to keep you moving forward?

What is a symbol, visual, or word that will allow you to keep your heart open to receive?